I Am Going To Meet Woodsy Owl!

A Step-by-Step Guide On What To Expect From A Visit With Woodsy.

By Brett Bigham

I hear that you are going to meet Woodsy Owl!

Woodsy Owl is super nice! He is everybody's friend!

Sometimes Woodsy will come and visit a school.
Sometimes people go to the park to meet Woodsy.

These people are having a great time meeting Woodsy.

Woodsy is very friendly.
You can touch Woodsy but be gentle.

Some people like to give Woodsy a hug. That is OK too.
Just don't squeeze to hard.

Woodsy likes a gentle hug.

He might even hug you back!

And remember what Woodsy says!
Give A Hoot, Don't Pollute!

Ability Guidebooks are step-by-step instructions on how to access community destinations. For many people with autism and neuro-diversity, new situations can cause stress and discomfort. Ability Guidebooks help prepare people for new experiences. This is why I emphasize the places to sit and areas to relax.

This book will also help general ed teachers prepare their young students to visit with Woodsy Owl.

Can You Translate?

If you can translate this book into any other language
I would love to hear from you!

Brett Bigham is the 2014 Oregon State Teacher of the Year and an NEA National Award for Teaching Excellence winner. Bigham is the only Oregon Special Education teacher to win these awards.

Bigham was named a Global Fellow by the NEA Foundation and traveled to Peru as an ambassador of that program. This allowed Bigham to create his first international Ability Guidebook for the Museo de Inka in Cusco, Peru. He has since made books for thirty-six countries in six languages.
